Bonner Day Named Head Of SDC Unit

Associated Press

Bonner H. Day, military and national security affairs correspondent for U.S. News and World Report, has been elected president of the Washington chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists, Sigma Delta Chi, for the 1975-76 year, succeeding Alan S. Emory, Washington correspondent of the Watertown, N.Y., Daily Times.

The new slate of officers, which will take over at the chapter's annual dinner next month, includes Marjorie Hunter of the New York Times, vice president; Robert Lewis of the Booth Newspapers, treasurer; and Henry Wieland Jr., U.S. Independent Telephone Association, secretary.

James M. Mundis, American Telephone and Telegraph Company, was re-elected to a new term on the board of directors. Hold-over directors are David J. Kraslow of the Cox Newspapers and Jane K. Denison, of United Press International.

The new officers were elected at the chapter meeting at the National Press Club Wednesday night.
